

Website Agreement

We (I)_____ acknowledge that the initial website setup services developed by eStream Inc., have been completed and are deemed acceptable. I also acknowledge that any further changes to the website requested by us (me) will require additional billable time by eStream Inc. beyond the scope of the initial website setup services, and additional charges will be incurred by us for such requests. eStream Inc. agrees to waive those charges should they require 1 (one) round of revisions or less per domain renewal period or 1 (one) year. However, any additional work requested in excess of 1 (one) hour per year will incur additional charges at the then existing eStream Inc. hourly rate, and will be billed per the standard billing practices of eStream Inc.. We (I) hereby acknowledge receipt of a current eStream Inc. billing rate and terms, and understand that eStream Inc. reserves the right to change such rates and terms without prior notice. We (I) authorize eStream Inc. the right to post the approved site to the domain that was purchased for us (me). We (I) further understand that eStream Inc. reserves the right to withhold services to any nonpaying site owners, at any time, for any failure to pay any charges billed pursuant to this paragraph.
